New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, [illegible] Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc, etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST BRADLEY & CARY, PROPRIETORS of the Invention, and SOLE MANUFACTURERS, 97 CHAMBERS, 79 & 81 READE STREETS New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Late Papers.

LATE Richmond and New York, papers are kept for sale at the post-office.

Salisbury Dec. 11th 1865. tfd-169.

To the Citizens of North-Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liquors, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate Importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transaction with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britian have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liquors, and Liqmures of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical Faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant, and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and venders of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which with ordinary circumspection will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would however, recommend in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot. 22 Beaver Street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c. in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especialy recommended to all connaisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would especially call the earley attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to insure the fulfillment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.

ENCOURAGE YOUR MECHANICS.

The Southern army was composed in the main, of the farmers and artisans of the country—those who are yet spared to the country, a sense of duty should impel us to promote their welfare and foster their interests. We should encourage them to turn to and with persistent labor and energy, assist in repairing the injured fortunes of the South.—Let us hold out the right hand of freindship, and give them a kindly greeting.—Let us do more. Let us pay them living prices for their work, and establish a correct system of Free Schools to teach their children. Let us dignify and enoble labor. Let us establish circulating libraries, reading rooms, and thus put it in every Mechanics power, without injury to himself or family, to educate himself and his family. Put it in his power even to climb the ladder of fame. Let him but understand that "Honor and fame from no condition rise.

Act well your part; there all the honor lies."

and you give an incentive to additional toil, to achieve a name that will live in history.

In order to assist those Mechanics whose wages do not justify an advertisement, we will open a space in our crowded columns to insert a Mechanics Directory, containing the names of such Mechanics, and their trades. Hand in your names.

The report was read with accompanying resolution, which has been published in the Standard, and which embraces Mr. Seward's construction of the amendment, that Congress has no powers additional, to legislate on the free-men in the States.

McLean introduced the resolution, but he was sorry to see that Congress now in session was exercising that power. If he had apprehended any such action, he would have voted against the amendment, if he had stood a single nay. He could not believe any harm could result from its passage, but good might possibly grow out of it.

On motion of Mr. Bynum the further consideration of the subject was postponed till to-morrow, 12 o'clock.

Adopted.

Mr. Ferebee said he desired again, as Chairman of the committee on military affairs, to make a statement, in order to quiet the anxiety manifested here, and among the people of the State at large. He appreciated the importance of immediate, prompt action, to meet any emergency that may arise during the Christmas holidays. He would state to the Senate that in obedience to its order he had applied to the General commanding the Department of North Carolina, for arms and ammunition to be placed in the hands of home police, and the militia recently organized as auxiliary to the same. Washington, Dec. 15.—The departure for Europe on Wednesday of the chief secretary of the French Legation is connected with the details of the Mexican question and growing in popular sympathy with the Liberal cause in Mexico, together with the appointment of General Logan, has led to a communication between Count Montholon and the State Department, which resulted in sending a message to the French Emperor for definite instructions.

It is said the withdrawal of the French legation from Washington will take place in case of the formal appointment of an United States Minister to the Mexican republic.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The two thirty's vote in the House yesterday, adopting the original Stevens resolution, is regarded as settling the question of admitting Southern claimants for seats. They will not get in this Winter. The President expressed himself this morning as disappointed by this radical vote. The evidence in the contested legation case of Dodge vs. Brooks, of New York city will be sent at once to the printer. It will make a volume of over one thousand pages. Dodge is here and the case will be taken up early in January.

The fact of his departure was kept as quiet as possible.

THE FENIAN STEPHENS IN PARIS.

New York, Dec. 15.—The Dublin Irishman of December —, has the following letter, translated from the French:

"PARIS, Nov. 27.

"Mr. Editor—I take the liberty of writing you these few lines to inform you that your brave countryman, Stephens, who escaped so happily from Dublin prison, has arrived safe and sound in Paris. He has even been seen during the past two days by numerous friends, dining in one of the great restaurants of the Boulevard des Italiens. It is needless to tell you, Mr. Editor, how the world was delighted on hearing that Stephens had escaped. We are all convined that the day is not far distant when Ireland shall break forever the Saxon chains which have kept her bound so long and will resussitate, as they, and as we all hope in France, great, glorious and free.

THE CONQUERED FLAG.

Take that banner down, 'tis weary,
Round its staff 'tis drooping dreary;
Furl it, fold it, let it rest,
For there is not a man to wave it—
For there is not a sword to lave it,
In the blood that heroes gave it;
And its foes now scorn and brave it—
Furl it, hide it, let it rest.

Take that banner down, 'tis tattered,
Broken is its staff and shattered.
And the valiant hosts are scattered
Over whom it floated high.
Oh, 'tis hard for to fold it,
Hard to think there's none to hold it—
Hard, that those who once unrolled it,
Now must furl it with a sigh.

Furl that banner, furl it sadly;
Once six millions hailed it gladly,
And ten thousand, wildly, madly,
Swore it should forever wave—
Swore that foeman's sword should never,
Hearts like theirs entwined, dissever:
And that flag should float forever
O'er their freedom, or their grave.

Furl it, for the hands that grasped it,
And the hearts that fondly clasped it,
Cold and dead, are lying low:
And that banner, it is trailing,
While around it sounds the wailing
Of its people in their woe.
For though conquered, they adore it—
Love the cold, dead hands that bore it;
Weep for those who fell before it,
Pardon those who trailed and tore it;
Now to furl and fold it so.

Furl that banner, true, 'tis goory,
But 'tis wreathed around with glory,
And 'twill live in song and story,
Though its folds are in the dust;
For its fame on brightest pages,
Sung by poets, penned by sages,
Shall go sounding down the ages—
Furl its folds, though now we must.

Furl that banner, softly, slowly—
Furl it gently, it is holy,
For it droops above the dead;
Touch it not, unfurl it never,
Let it droop there, furled forever,
For its people's hopes are fled.

PROCLAMATION.

By W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, IT HAS BEEN REPRESENTED to me that there is an urgent necessity in many of the Counties of this State, that funds should be raised by taxation for the support of the poor: Now, therefore, I, W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of the power vested in me, do hereby proclaim and declare—

That a majority of the Provisional Justices of the Peace in any County in this State are hereby empowered and authorized to impose such a tax as in their judgment may be indispensable to the support of the poor; said tax to be levied, collected, and accounted for, and used in accordance with the provisions of chapters 28 and 87, Revised Code of North Carolina.

Provisional officers whose duty it is to execute the orders of the Provisional Justices are hereby commanded to be prompt in the performance of their duty under this proclamation.

Done at our City of Raleigh, on the 9th day of December one thousand [L. S.] eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the independence of the United States the 90th.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.

I OFFER for sale a small Tract of Land situated on the N. C R. R, 2½ miles South of Salisbury. This Tract contains about 300 acres, more or less, 60 of which has been recently clared and is fresh, and new, and exceedingly fertile—a part of the 60 acres is high meadow land, and constitutes about half of the whole arable land now cleared. The meadow may be used for sereal or grass purposes, and is equally valuable for both. The ballance of the land is well timbered with virgin growth and convenient to a good market. There is also a "Gold Mine" of tested value on the same Tract, to which I propose to attach 30 acres or more of wooded land, which I propose to sell separately. I shall remain in Salisbury for two weeks, where I shall be happy to treat with any person wishing to purchase, after which time I shall intrust the sale of the above to the care of Col. B. Craize my accounted agent. The purchaser can have the benefit of supplying himself with 60 bbls of corn and all of the farming implements &c. necesary to conduct the farm,

PROSPECTUS,

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in his enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special featnre of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil conrts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument; combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.
